

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota is a vital transportation center of the Midwest and its rapid growth commercially and industrially was fostered by the expansion of its transportation facilities; and

WHEREAS, our transportation system is a vital network which spans the continent, helps keep the wheels of commerce and industry turning, and makes us the most mobile society in the history of the world; and

WHEREAS, not only our commercial and economic and personal lives, but also the very defense of the nation, are dependent upon modern and efficient transportation; and

WHEREAS, the Congress, by Senate Joint Resolution 22 of May 16, 1957 has requested the President to proclaim annually the third Friday of May of each year as National Defense Transportation Day, and by House Joint Resolution 628 of May 14, 1962 has requested the President to proclaim annually the week of May in which that Friday falls, as National Transportation Week, as a tribute to the men and women who, working night and day, move the goods and people throughout our land:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of Friday, May 15, 1970, to be National Transportation Day and the week beginning May 10 to 16, 1970 as in South Dakota and urge all of our people to participate in observance of these events.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of South Dakota to be affixed in Pierre, this 14 th day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy.
